Assassin's Creed: The Ankh of Isis Trilogy is ultimately the sort of thing that's meant entirely for diehard franchise fans and basically nobody else. While the art is pretty and some of the plot elements are fun and interesting, the continuity is messed up all over the place, the whole purpose is ultimately to pass the comic torch to the Hawk character, and the story that's told here amounts to being told “sorry for wasting your time,” after three that's of buildup.
