In Stone, Parker has created a more complex, troubled hero than his wisecracking Boston detective, Spenser. Paradise is a small town on the Massachusetts coast with a police force of only 12 members. Jesse's chief assistant and partner in playful banter is Molly, the only woman on the force. At one point in NIGHT AND DAY, she says, "I feel ...

» Mystery Review: ROBERT B. PARKER - Night and Day.

The eighth Jesse Stone mystery novel Night and Day is as formulaic as they come. This time, that doesn't get in the way of a pretty decent mystery. There is a peeping Tom lurking in Paradise and a school principal is in trouble for running an underwear check before a school dance. Paradise police chief Jesse Stone is still not over his ex.
